

CERTIFICATES ISSUED TO REJECTED APPLICANTS

May Now Repute Charge of Being
"Slackers" in Time of Emergency.

HARDEMAN ISSUES AN APPEAL

Tells Young Men to Stop Wasting
Time by Wiring the President
Officers of Service and, Instead, to Call at Recruiting Office.

To enable a loyal citizen in plain-clothes to repudiate with emphasis any charge that he is a slacker, the United States Marine Corps recruiting station obtained from the printer yesterday a supply of certificates, one of which will be awarded henceforth to each applicant for enlistment who shall be unable to pass the physical examination. The card reads: "This is to certify that Mr. [Name] has patriotically offered his services to the United States Marine Corps, but has been rejected for physical disabilities." At the bottom is space for the signature of the officer in charge of the station and in the upper left-hand corner is the emblem of the corps with its motto, "Semper Paratus."

Three recruits who enlisted as a result of a street-meeting late Saturday night will be sent forward to-day to the recruiting station for training. They are James Page, Kastelberg, Joseph Lewis Giannotti and Allen Donnell Bass, all of Richmond. Another recruit to the Marine Corps, Stonewall Jackson, was accepted on April 12, but is a member of the Richmond Howitzers. He has petitioned for discharge from that organization, and is waiting to hear the decision of Captain Myers.

FIVE MEN ENLIST

Five men enlisted yesterday at the navy recruiting station. They are Robert Henry Hancock, of Crystal Hill; Joseph Edwin Charles Murray, of Richmond; Thomas Gordon, of Galveston, Texas; and Martin Stencer and S. D. Hively, of Danville.

From the Richmond recruiting station for the army, three men, all white, were sent forward yesterday. They are Daniel W. Allred, of Randleman, N. C.; William L. Green, of Waverly, and William Adams, of Meherrin.

Major Lecher Hardeeman, the officer in charge of the army recruiting district of Eastern Virginia, addressed a call to single men yesterday as follows:

"Have you any one entirely dependent upon you for support? Is your mother or a sister wholly dependent upon your daily wage or your monthly salary for support? If you are going to go about your country's call for aid?"

"The German government has forced war upon us. Whatever may be your personal views in the matter, the time has arrived to put aside those views and stand by your country. Every true American, no matter what may be his social standing, his religious creed, his race or his color owes a duty to his country. Some men will be better fitted for one duty, some for another, but the able-bodied man, with no one wholly dependent upon him for support, can do his duty. That duty is fighting. When this war is over, are you going around with your head down, vainly regretting that you did not have the nerve to be a true American? Or are you going around with your head up, able to say to the eyes and ears of your country: 'I obeyed my country's call'?"

"All enlistments in the regular army now are for duration of the war. Do not waste the President's time by saying that you are ready to go in any capacity. If you mean business, just call at the recruiting station, 320 East Broad Street, and a place will be found for you without delay."

FOURTH REGIMENT TO GIVE BADGES TO REJECTED MEN

Officers of the Fourth Virginia Regiment, National Guard, whose headquarters are located in Norfolk, have just worked out a plan in their recruiting campaign to furnish with buttons all men who apply for enlistment in the regiment and are rejected because of physical disability and cannot be accepted for Uncle Sam's fighting forces.

The adoption of this plan was decided upon several days ago. The regiment was allowed to resume recruiting up to the maximum peace strength of 100 men to each company, a great many men have been refused enlistment because they were either physically unfit for the service, or had relatives dependent upon them for support.

These buttons will be issued to men rejected so that they may be worn, proclaiming the fact that they have applied to the Fourth Regiment for enlistment, but have been refused and are not "slackers." According to advice received in Richmond yesterday, recruiting is still on the increase and a large number of men are still needed by the regiment to fill up its ranks.

SUNDAY SCHOOL INSTITUTE

Classes to be held beginning To-day at Centenary Methodist Church.

Classes will start this afternoon in the Training School of the Methodist Sunday School Society of Richmond which will be in progress until Friday at 10 o'clock each day. Rev. William E. Thompson, D. D., pastor of Park Place Methodist Church, will conduct a review of the Gospel of John from 4:10 until 5:30 o'clock each day. Four classes will be in progress simultaneously as follows: "The Old Testament," Rev. Edward Mack, D. D., of Union Theological Seminary; "The People," J. H. Montgomery, executive secretary of the Cooperative Education Association of Virginia; "The Teacher," J. M. Way, field secretary of the Sunday School Board of the Southern Methodist Church; "The School," M. W. Brabner, field secretary of the Virginia Conference Sunday School Board.

Miss Nannie Lee Frayer, of Louisville, Ky., will speak at 5:50 o'clock on "The Social Opportunity for Elementary Pupils." Supper will be served at 6 o'clock in the parish house adjoining the church. After supper there will be conferences and meetings of classes until 8:20, when Rev. W. Asbury Christian, D. D., will speak on "The Kingdom of God Among Men, Its Preparation and Progress."

Fail to Get Dog Licenses

Second District officers reported yesterday to the station house a total of 172 citizens of Richmond who have dogs on which they have not yet paid taxes. Patrolman Maxey alone reported 145 citizens in Barton Heights and North Richmond, while, for several days, other officers have been sending in long lists from their beats of people with "untaxed" dogs. They will be summoned to the Police Court unless licenses are secured at once.

Housekeepers Are Hoarding Supplies

Unpatriotic Citizens Will Probably Pay Heavy Toll to Wheat Weevil This Summer.

Flour and sugar are being hoarded by Richmond housekeepers, according to several large grocers. The tendency to lay in heavy stores of edibles has been noticeable within the past few weeks, their being a fear that the war speculators are going to reap a harvest, and the manifest intention of the buyers is to secure as much food as their means permit.

That the hoarding of flour is not only unpatriotic, but is foolish, was pointed out last week by E. G. Schmidt, of Hermann Schmidt & Co., who warned against the wheat weevil, which gets its deadly work in warm weather. Few households are prepared to take care of a quantity of food, and many persons will learn to their sorrow that summer heat has a bad effect on edibles, even those in tin.

The girls' canning clubs of the State will do extra work this year in preserving and canning fruits and vegetables, and in doing this important work, however, are going to find that there is a shortage in tin cans, due to the heavy demands for sheet tin in other lines, while glass fruit jars are not going to be as plentiful. Shortage in the basic materials for the manufacture of glass will be felt by the jar manufacturers. Dried fruits will probably take the place of the canned articles in many homes, as this product can be marketed without excessive cost.

The practice of economy and elimination of waste is being preached by the grocers to the citizens of the city. The same thing should apply to every home if the country is to escape a food shortage. But the quickest way to make prices skyrocket is to hoard food, and it is against such an evil that Congress will probably act shortly.

WILL GET COMMISSIONS

Members of Officers' Reserve Corps to Be Given Recognition at Once.

Members of the National Guard of Virginia who have received appointments in the Officers' Reserve Corps will receive their commissions at once, according to a statement given by the Department of the East. The War Department, it is announced, has rescinded a part of its order of last week, and hundreds of trained men who were rejected from their commissions, but who have not been commissioned, will receive full recognition.

In order to take the examinations for commissions in the reserve, it was necessary for guardsmen to get discharges from their organizations. These men, the majority of whom are non-commissioned officers of long service, were alarmed when it was given out that they would not be commissioned. This step is being taken to afford to leave to be established by the War Department based on the Plattburg idea. These men, however, are still invited to attend the camps without pay, although Congress will be asked to make an appropriation to take care of them while in training. In time of peace, reserve officers, when ordered on duty for a fifteen-day period, receive full pay and allowances.

There is a strong possibility now that Congress will pass appropriations to pay not only the reserve officers, but such civilians as take the three months' course in one of the training camps. This step is being taken on the ground that many men cannot afford to leave their work and families for three months, thereby giving men of independent means an unfair advantage.

Applicants who want to attend the training camps will be required to pass certain examinations to find out if they are qualified. An officer will probably be designated here for that purpose. The examination will cover mental as well as physical and moral qualifications. The camp for this section will be held at Fort Myer, just outside of Washington.

RED MEN TO CELEBRATE

Indians to Hold Thirty-Eighth Anniversary Celebration at Lander Building To-Night.

Extensive preparations have been made for the celebration of the thirty-eighth anniversary of the Indian War, No. 52, Improved Order of Red Men, which will be held to-night at 8 o'clock in the Lander Building, Tenth and Hull Streets. Short talks will be made by several former officers of the lodge.

Officers of the lodge last night that they expected several prominent members of the lodge from various parts of Virginia to attend the anniversary celebration to-night. Opening the program will be a song, led by past sachems of the Indian War. Dinner will be served at the conclusion of the business session.

Among those scheduled to speak are C. S. Wells and Charles Burkett, past grand representatives to the great council of the United States, and Past Sachem A. F. Holt.

WOMAN SUFFRAGE HEARING

Mrs. Meredith and Delegation Invited to Attend Senate Committee Meeting.

Mrs. Charles V. Meredith, local head of the Congressional Union for Woman Suffrage, last night received a telegram from Miss Anne Martin, chairman of the legislative committee of the National Woman's Party, asking her to come to Washington with a delegation of Virginia women to a hearing on national woman suffrage before the Senate Committee on Woman Suffrage in the Senate office building on Thursday morning at 10 o'clock. The local delegation will consist of Mrs. Meredith, Mrs. E. E. Hooker, Mrs. H. H. Urquhart and Mrs. J. Duke. Mrs. Meredith has invited to join the delegation Mrs. Adams, of Norfolk, and Mrs. Lockwood, Mrs. Bossieux and Mrs. Davis, of Hopewell.

FALLS FROM WINDOW

Four-Year-Old Child Has Narrow Escape From Serious Injury.

Giovanni Arestos, four years old, fell from the second story window at 1300 East Main Street yesterday afternoon about 4 o'clock and miraculously escaped serious injury. The baby is said to have climbed from a chair into the window and pitched forward to the ground below. Despite the fact that the accident occurred at 4 o'clock, its death would have been a tragedy. City Ambulance, with Dr. Edwards in charge, was called. The child was rushed to the Virginia Hospital, where an examination by physicians there disclosed the fact that no bones were broken, and that it was not seriously hurt.

MITE BOXES OPENED

Episcopal Sunday Schools of Richmond Contribute $3,426.55 to Missions at Annual Mass-Meeting.

From the mite-box, Easter offerings of the Episcopal Sunday schools of Richmond, a total of $3,426.55 was presented to the cause of missions yesterday afternoon at the annual mass-meeting held at St. Paul's Church. The fund is expected to be increased somewhat by contributions not reported yesterday. Addresses were made by Rev. Thomas Semmes, rector of Meade Memorial Church, Rev. L. Valentine Lee, assistant rector of St. Paul's.

LABOR COUNCIL TO BRING OUT CANDIDATE FOR HOUSE

Central Body Seeks Representation
Among Five From Richmond in Lower Branch.

STATE COMMITTEE TO MEET

Will Decide To-Morrow Night on Holding of State Convention.
Urner Is Not Expected to Enter
Race for State Treasurer.

Organized labor, according to leaders of the Central Trades and Labor Council, will unite in bringing out a candidate for the Legislature from the city of Richmond, to run in the primary of August 7. A recommendation to this end has already been brought in by the Council's legislative committee and has been approved by practically a unanimous vote.

In the election of two years ago R. T. Rowden, vice-president of the Central Council, was the candidate of organized labor. He made a strong run, but failed to finish one of the five winners. At a recent meeting of the Central Trades and Labor Council he was again nominated along with M. R. Pace, G. L. Wilcox and R. T. Colvin. Mr. Colvin and Mr. Wilcox declined to accept nomination. At the next meeting of the council a decision will be reached as to the candidate to be the standard-bearer of Richmond's organized labor.

Although less than six weeks remain within which aspirants for State offices and the Legislature may officially declare their candidacy under the primary law, there has been considerable activity locally with respect to the oncoming legislative contest. With the exception of Graham R. Hobson, who is now on the Administrative Board, the Richmond members of the Legislature, it is understood, will be candidates to succeed themselves.

TEN CANDIDATES EXPECTED FOR CITY'S FIVE SEATS

Richmond has five seats in the House of Delegates and two in the Senate. The present members of the House are Captain W. M. Starnes, R. T. Colvin, James P. Jones and James H. Price. Mr. Hobson has resigned. Besides the four present members, it is already certain that there will be in the race Richard W. Carrington and Albert C. Bochen, the latter one of the candidates in the election two years ago.

With a candidate to represent labor interests practically assured, the entries for the lower house from Richmond will be at least seven in number. It is regarded as probable there will be at least ten candidates for the House before the list closes. There will be no election for the Senate this year. Louis C. Kennerly and James E. Cannon, incumbents, both holding over, will be re-elected in 1918 for four-year terms.

The political situation cleared decidedly last week with the formal announcement by State Senator R. T. Colvin, of Middlesex, that he would be a candidate for the office of Attorney-General. It will clear still more this week with a definite statement from State Treasurer Clarence H. Lister as to his intentions with respect to the contest for this office. It is generally accepted that Mr. Urner will be a candidate to succeed him.

BUCHANAN AND WILLIAMS BOTH FROM SOUTHWEST

With respect to the race for Lieutenant-Governor, there is still the uncertainty growing out of the fact that the two candidates, former State Senator R. Frank Buchanan and former Delegate Martin Williams, are both identified with the same wing of the party, and are thus in a position to divide the vote. It is believed that the two candidates, both of whom are from the Southwest, are both of the same political persuasion. Whether both will remain in the race until the end, thereby bringing about a division of the vote, remains to be seen. It is believed that one of the other may be induced to withdraw for the sake of harmony, but have lost favor, and the indications now are that Mr. Williams and Mr. Buchanan will fight it out to a finish.

The outstanding event politically this week will be the meeting of the State Democratic Committee here to-morrow night. It is expected that the purpose of taking action on the recommendation of the Roanoke convention that a Democratic convention be held in June of this year for the purpose of framing a party platform as far as can be learned from sounding the leaders, the idea of holding a convention this summer is not finding wide favor, and the indications are that the recommendation will be vetoed at to-morrow night's meeting.

THREE GOVERNORS EXPECTED

John R. Mott to Make Address at Luncheon Thursday at Westmoreland Club.

Governors of three States may be present at the dinner in honor of Dr. John R. Mott, head of the Young Men's Christian Association of America, at the Westmoreland Club Thursday afternoon at 1 o'clock. Governor Stuart, who will be in the city, has invited Governor T. W. Burkett, of North Carolina, and Governor R. I. Manning, of South Carolina, to attend this affair, at which time Dr. Mott will outline a plan for Virginia's participation in the national-wide $2,000,000 for Young Men's Christian Association work in soldier camps.

SPECIAL RATES FOR TROOPS

Fairfax Harrison Calls Committee of Railway Men to Meet in Washington.

Fairfax Harrison, president of the Southern Railway, and chairman of the Railroad Executive Committee of the Committee on National Defense of the American Railway Association, has called a meeting to be held this morning in Washington. The committee is expected to prepare at once new freight and passenger military tariffs, which will probably be considerably lower than the present commercial and passenger rates. The question of building new lines and of constructing double tracks, so as to improve the movement of supplies and avoid congestion, may be considered by the committee.

The members of the committee are Fairfax Harrison, Southern Railway; chairman; Howard Elliott, New Haven; Samuel Rea, Pennsylvania; Hale Holden, Burlington; and Julius Kruttschnitt, Southern Pacific.

Charged With Theft From Graves of Dead

Harry Duval Accused of Stealing
Flowers From Sections in Hollywood.

Harry Duval, thirty years old, was arrested yesterday on the charge of stealing flowers from graves in Hollywood Cemetery, and will be given a hearing this morning in the Police Court. Duval, who lives at 305 South Harrison Street, was bailed by a magistrate a short time after his arrest.

When taken into custody Duval had nearly an armful of flowers in his possession, believed to have been taken from graves and plots in the cemetery where they had been placed in memory of loved ones. Duval is said to have walked from section to section and pilfered the choicest flowers, whether they were planted on a grave or in the section. He did not content himself with merely plucking a few blossoms, but is said to have dug the prettier plants up by their roots.

PROHIBITION LAW CASES

C. M. Sims Charged With Importing Liquor—Negro Said to Have Solicited Orders.

C. M. Sims, twenty-five years old, of 105 West Clay Street, was arrested yesterday morning, charged with transporting liquor in violation of the State prohibition law. He was taken into custody by Patrolmen Reese, Red and Smith a few minutes after he had alighted from a Northern train and a quantity of liquor confiscated. He will be given a hearing this morning in the Police Court.

Lorenzo Allen, colored, charged with soliciting orders for liquor on the street in violation of the prohibition measure, was arrested early last night by Patrolman Sweet and locked up in the First District Station for a preliminary hearing this morning. The negro is the first to be arrested on this charge for some time.

R. R. Limerick, of 1507 Fairmount Avenue, and H. D. Downing, of 317 North Fourth Street, must also answer charges of violating the prohibition law this morning. Limerick is charged with giving away a drink of whisky in some place other than his home, as provided by the measure, while Downing is charged with drinking a public place. Limerick, according to the police, gave Downing a drink in a Broad Street restaurant. Both men, who were arrested by Patrolman Settles, were bailed for their appearance in the Police Court.

FAVORS PROHIBITION

Session of Westminster Presbyterian Church in Favor of Prohibition of Food Supply.

At a meeting of the session of Westminster Presbyterian Church held yesterday a request of Rev. James Cannon, Jr., chairman of the National Legislative Committee of the Anti-Saloon League, to the church to send representatives in Congress to support emergency legislation on prohibition to preserve the food supply was read, and the session officially ordered the following telegram sent to President Wilson, Senators Martin and Swanson, and Congressman A. J. Montague:

"The session of Westminster Presbyterian Church to-day adopted the following resolution: That the president be requested to recommend, and Congress to adopt, such emergency prohibition legislation as will conserve the food supplies of the country and promote the general efficiency of our people in this, their hour of national peril."

WILL URGE RECRUITING

Well-Known Speakers to Appear During Intermissions of Preparedness Picture.

Under the auspices of the Capital City Branch of the Virginia Division, National League for Woman's Service, several speakers will urge the urgent need for enlistment in the United States Navy during the intermissions in the presentation of "Womanhood" at the Strand Theatre this week.

The picture, "Womanhood," "The Glory of a Nation," is a preparedness proclamation, and tells the story of a mythical invasion of New York City, followed by a battle scene. The United States Army and Navy were seen in action, and a huge Zeppelin airship is seen to crash into the sea as the result of a well-aimed shot.

In the intermission this afternoon the cause of recruiting will be presented by Mrs. Norman V. Randolph and to-night a brief address will be made by Rev. W. E. Thompson, D. D., who is himself a naval reserve officer.

HOUSE NUMBER WRONG. HE IS SUMMONED TO COURT

J. T. GILL, of 3217 Floyd Avenue, Faces Prosecution Under Almost Forgotten City Ordinance.

J. T. Gill, of 3217 Floyd Avenue, has been summoned to appear in the Police Court on the charge of violating a city ordinance that has been all but forgotten. Gill is charged with having his home improperly numbered, and the complaint is City Engineer Lolling. The case will be tried one day this week.

Several years ago the number of his home was properly 3217, according to the police, but recently a house was built between Mr. Gill's home and the adjoining house. This building then became No. 3219, but Mr. Gill is said to have declined to change the number of his home. Several complaints were filed with City Engineer Lolling by the owners of the new house, and the matter lay before Mr. Gill. He is said to have continued to refuse to renumber the house, and was finally summoned to the Police Court.

WILL VISIT METHODIST ORPHANAGE

The members of the Woman's Missionary Society, auxiliary No. 2, of Centenary Methodist Church, will pay a visit this afternoon to the Methodist Orphanage. The party will leave at 4 o'clock. Those who expect to go are requested to notify the president, Miss A. Virginia Craig.

RICHMOND TO SPEED ITS ADOPTED SONS TO WAR

Eight British Subjects, Residents of Virginia, Leave From Elba
Station To-Night.

DEMONSTRATION IS PLANNED

Mayor Ainslie and Business Manager
Dabney Approve Suggestion of
Head of British Branch of War
Relief Association.

Richmond's first contingent leaves for the front to-night. It is only a small band of Englishmen, eight in number, but Richmond is going to give its adopted sons a rousing God-speed before they start northward to join the Canadian expeditionary force. The farewell will take place at Elba Station.

Plans for giving the boys a real leave-taking will be discussed this morning at 9:30 o'clock at a meeting to be held in the office of Mayor George Ainslie. E. T. Scrutton, president of the British Branch of the War Relief Association of Virginia, last night launched the idea. He received the endorsement of W. T. Dabney, business manager of the Chamber of Commerce, Mayor Ainslie, and prominent English residents of the city. Helping Mr. Scrutton are J. R. Kennedy and Ivan Smith, local manager of the Imperial Tobacco Company, of Great Britain and Ireland.

It is proposed to have the Mayor officially wish the boys God-speed. This will be done at the City Hall about 7:30 o'clock. The Automobiles, decorated with the Union Jack and American flags will be in waiting, and escorted by scores of friends, they will be taken to Elba Station, from where they leave for Canada at 8:30 o'clock.

MAYOR AND BRITISH CONSUL TO WISH THEM GOD-SPEED

Arriving at the station, friends of the boys will unite in singing a number of songs, including "Auld Lang Syne," "Tippurary," and "Dixie." Arthur P. Welsh, consul, will be one of those at the station to see them off.

Seven had planned to leave to-night, but an additional recruit was received yesterday when Mr. McKay decided to join the party. Mr. McKay, who planned to leave last night, but changed his mind. He, together with Arthur R. W. MacKreth, of the Times-Dispatch, and a number of friends, will go to Elba Station. The Automobiles, decorated with the Union Jack and American flags will be in waiting, and escorted by scores of friends, they will be taken to Elba Station, from where they leave for Canada at 8:30 o'clock.

Patriotism

As Our Fathers and Forefathers Knew It

THE other day we saw in an old print this definition of Patriotism:

"Love of one's country; the passion which moves a person to serve his country; either in defending it from invasion or protecting its rights and maintaining its laws and institution—which almost immediately moved us to wonder whether or not some of Virginia's eligible young men who are 'holding back'—who have not as yet made up their minds to answer their country's call—have not built up for themselves a more modern version of that word with a different meaning.

The true patriot is not the gifted orator who from platform or street corner sways the multitude; not the writer who excels in his prowess of pen. The true patriot (to-day as yesterday) is he who is born of the individual idea of rendering some real SERVICE—and such a service now—whether on a ship of war, in the trenches of France, in a munitions factory or on a farm—calls for sacrifice.

True Patriotism, it is quite evident, is love of country and its institutions manifested in ACTION! And may none witness the hour when we fail, or a time when we are not willing to render real service at our country's call.

But the nation needs men—RIGHT NOW—and there are some who must serve whether they want to or not. How much better Americans we as individuals will feel, and how much truer to the traditions of old Virginia we will be living if it can be said of us that we went and did "our bit" voluntarily and cheerfully.

Young man, where do you stand?
